Brief History

Born in Wehlau, East Prussia in 1864, Paul Frank Beich received his early education at Culm where his father was headmaster. He was the eldest of three sons born to August and Huldah (Volgelsang) Beich. At the age of 18 he emigrated and on February 21, 1887, became a naturalized citizen of the United States in McLean County. On March 1 of that year he moved to St. Louis, Missouri, to take a place as a travelling salesman for candy maker Peckham & Co.

In 1893 Beich purchased the Chisholm-Gray Company building in Bloomington, first conducting business in the 200 block of East Front Street, and later in the 100 block. In 1899 Beich and Oscar Buffe purchased the Lancaster Caramel Company from M.S. Hershey. By 1908 Beich's candy factory was at the foot of West Grove Street, just west of Union Station. Beich was considered one of the city's leading industries, employing over 200 people. By 1929 the company employed 400 people while the Chicago branch employed 200.

The Paul F. Beich company had purchased an existing plant to manufacture in Chicago in 1912. This expedited delivery to the Chicago market. Later, improved roads and trucks allowed swifter access to this market, and the Chicago manufacturing was incorporated into the Bloomington site in 1939.

In 1953, the company introduced a profit-sharing approach with their Kathryn Beich line. Organizations such as churches and schools ordered special candies to sell as fund-raisers and pay for the merchandise later.

After many plant expansions at the old Bloomington site, the company opened a new plant on Beich Road, south of Bloomington. In 1984 Nestle purchased the company, soon ending all Beich family involvement. Nestle sold the Kathryn Beich fund-raising company to a New York-based investment firm in 2002 and sold the Bloomington factory to Ferrero in 2018.

Paul Frank Beich (PFB:1864-1937) married Catherine "Kittie" Mary Gerken (1867-1944) in 1888 in Bloomington. Her parents, William A. & Mary Amelia Stemm Gerken, were prominent and affluent Bloomington residents. Paul and Kittie reared two sons, Otto Gerken Beich and Albert Charles Beich, each of whom were eventually appointed chairmen of the board of their father's company.

Otto Gerken Beich (OGB:1892-1964) wed Harriet Kiser (1893-1958) and had two children, Paul M. and William A. Beich. Otto (OGB) served as Paul F. Beich Company president from 1929-1945. Harriet remained in Bloomington a while after their 1948 or 1949 divorce and then moved to California. OGB wed a second time to Lucile "Cele" Heiple (1917-2021), and OGB adopted her young son Stephen (1946-1990).

Paul Marion Beich (1916-1968), Otto G. Beich's elder son, became president of the company; in 1939 he wed Katherine McNulta (1916-1954) and fathered four children: Paul M. Jr.(1939-2106); Karen (Crowe); Otto "Tony"(1946-2005); and Herbert "Hobby". After Katherine's death he married Ruth Baldwin, with whom he had daughter Mary Lee Beich Gendron.

William August "Bill" Beich, second son of Otto G. Beich, earned an engineering degree and joined the family business. After his brother Paul's death in 1968, he became president of the company. He continued in this role until his retirement in 1985, one year after the Nestle buyout. He married Patricia Spahr (1921-2005) of Chicago. They raised three children in Bloomington: Diane Beich McCall (b.1945), Fritz Patrick Beich (b. 1947), and David Warren Beich (b.1950).

Albert Charles Beich (1895-1948), younger son of the company founder, married Hulda Burke (1896-1972) and had three children: Betty, Mary, and Albert C. Jr. Betty married Dr. Raymond White of Chicago and they had one son by 1949; Mary was a Hollywood actress, under the name Mary Bovard, and married Rudolph Myers of Santa Monica, Calif. She was known as Mary Beich McCarthy in 1996 and was an internationally known painter, living in Paradise Valley, Ariz.; Albert C. Jr. (1919-1996) was a Hollywood screenwriter. Albert C. Sr., and Hulda divorced; Hulda and her three children moved to Los Angeles in the early 1930s. Albert C. Beich Sr. and his second wife, Julia Bell of Boston, Mass., had three children: Albert William, Julia, and Frank. Julia married James Bay of Evanston. Albert C. Sr. died in September of 1948.
